

CALHOUN COUNTY
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

2018
CALHOUN COUNTY
COMMUNITY AWARDS

Each year, the Calhoun County Chamber of Commerce seeks nominations of individuals who have made noteworthy contributions in areas such as business, civic and voluntary services, education, health, fundraising, arts, or any other area that lends to the advancement and well-being of our community. These awards include the prestigious Citizen of the Year and Volunteer of the Year, as well as recognition for more specific displays of community support, involvement, and encouragement with the Pioneer Award, Cracker Jack Award, and Rock Star Awards. Please help us identify and honor those who go above and beyond.

Nominations must be in writing and should include information such as how the individual has:

- Exhibited leadership and integrity
- Initiated efforts or activities with local impact
- Participated in noteworthy projects or initiatives
- Thought “outside the box” with innovation and creativity
- Demonstrated active citizenship or community pride
- Worked to preserve local heritage and culture
- Served on boards or committees, or been recognized for service
- Made a lasting contribution to the community

Nominations must be submitted no later than Friday, Feb. 16, 2018. You may nominate more than one person. A committee will review, and 2018 recipients will be announced at the Chamber’s annual banquet Monday, March 5th.
